

GUARDSMEN OF D. C. TO HIKE 30 MILES IN NEW HOBNAIL SHOES

District Boys at Border Fear Tramp May Lead to the Hospital.

BALL AMMUNITION ISSUED

Soldiers Revel With Halloween Goblins After Repelling Attack of Imaginary Enemy.

By Staff Correspondent.

CAMP WILSON, San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 1.—Whether the District militia start on a thirty-mile hike tomorrow depends upon the issuing of hobnail shoes to them today, and the ability of the Second West Virginia regiment to get in readiness for the march. Indications today were that the hike might be postponed.

Orders have been issued that all militia men from Washington, West Virginia, and Mississippi composing the provisional brigade which will make the march must have hobnail shoes. The quartermaster's department wishes to test these shoes on long marches.

The District boys do not relish the idea of hiking thirty miles in stiff new shoes with hobnails in them. The Washington boys have learned that about 50 soldiers who made the hike to Austin had to be sent to the hospital for foot trouble as a result of wearing the shoes.

Ball Ammunition Issued.

Capt. Will Chase, of the District militia supply company, has been designated as brigade quartermaster for the hike. Colonel Young considers this a high compliment to the District militia, after spending a month with Troop A as medical officer. Captain Bryson has returned to duty at the regimental infirmary after spending a month with Troop A as medical officer. "PASTOR" RUSSELL DIES ABOARD TRAIN

Independent Minister and Editor Stricken in Texas While en Route East.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—News of the death of "Pastor" Charles Taze Russell was received in Brooklyn early today by the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, of which Russell was the head. The word came from "Pastor" Russell's secretary.

The message, which was sent from Wauka, Okla., said Russell died on a train near Canadian, Tex., but did not give the cause of death.

No funeral arrangements have been made here, but it was said that burial probably would be at Pittsburgh, where "Pastor" Russell's father, mother, and a brother are buried.

"Pastor" Russell was widely known in this country and Canada. He was independent in his faith, belonging to no denomination. His sermons were based on his own interpretation of the bible.

The news of "Pastor" Russell's death was received with incredulity last night by the 15 workers and Bible students at the ministers' "Community House" on Columbia Heights, Brooklyn.

"I can't believe that the pastor is dead," said A. H. MacMillan, Brooklyn representative of the preacher. "We would surely have heard from 'Pastor' Russell Spurgeon, who was traveling with him on his tour."

PASTOR RUSSELL WAS WELL KNOWN IN CITY

Had Conducted Several Revivals In Washington.

Pastor Russell was well known in Washington, where he had conducted a number of revival lectures and had a local organization of followers. Through the Bible Students' Association of America, his sermons have been given a world-wide circulation, and his country-wide travels were financed by this organization.

He advocated a religion of such breadth that he included Protestants of all denominations among his followers. He was, for a number of years, a contributor to The Washington Times.

The Washington Temple Congregation, which meets each Sunday in the Old Masonic Temple, auditorium at 3 o'clock, is awaiting official notification of Pastor Russell's death and will then appoint a committee of members to attend the funeral service.

Thirteen Are Admitted To Chamber of Commerce

Thirteen were admitted to membership in the Washington Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the membership committee this afternoon. The new members are: M. J. Cook, J. C. DeVillier, Louise Hodges, Frank V. Killian, Knight Bros. A. B. Lacey, Thomas J. Molloy, Soterios Nicholson, George S. Rees, R. H. Stickney, J. Clinton Tibby, W. J. Wilson, and William Werner.

The November meeting of the board of directors is to be held tonight at 8 o'clock.

Austrian Losses in Ten Months Put At 850,000

GENEVA, Nov. 1.—The Austrians have lost 850,000 men since the beginning of the year, according to authoritative information received here. Of this number 450,000 are prisoners in the hands of the Russians or Italians.

When Roumania declared war, Austria had forty-six divisions on the Russian front, thirty-one on the Italian front and two in Serbia and Albania. From these forces she withdrew eighty-eight battalions to aid against the Roumanians. This force was later augmented as fighting grew less violent on the Russian front.

Cuba Holds Its Fourth Presidential Election

HAVANA, Nov. 1.—The Cuban republic today is holding its fourth Presidential election, in which President Mario Menocal, Conservative candidate, is opposed for re-election by Alfredo Zayas, of the Liberal party.

Little disorder has marked the present campaign, when compared with the political convulsions which attended earlier elections in Cuba. Impartial opinion of foreigners here grants to President Menocal the probability of serving another term.

Golf Ball Diet Fatal.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Federal Judge Landis' pet bulldog swallowed a golf ball. It exploded in his tummy, and now the dog is as active as a ball on the green.

Roumanian Frontier Is Clear of Austro-Germans

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Northwestern frontier of Roumania has been entirely cleared of the Austro-Germans, said a Bucharest wireless message today. Falkenhayn's pressure is strongest at Ploesti, where the Austro-Germans are attempting to drive southward to cut important railway communications.

Receivers Named.

Attorney Walter C. English and Basil D. Boteler were today appointed receivers for Francis B. Libbey, a lumber merchant, in an order signed by Justice Stafford, in the District Supreme Court. Their bond was fixed at $5,000 each.

Jury Acquits Man Who Killed Religious Lecturer

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 1.—John Copeland, charged with the murder of William Black, anti-Catholic lecturer, today was acquitted by a jury that had been deliberating since Saturday night.

LOOKED YOUNGER BY DARKENING HER GRAY HAIR

Changed Her Gray Hair to a Perfect Dark Shade Without Dyeing It.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 12, 1915.

"I have used HAY'S HAIR HEALTH for some time now, and am very glad to find a preparation that really darkened my gray hair so nicely of this kind that really lives up to its representation.

"It made me so much younger looking, too, that I will always stand ready to recommend it to anyone who wishes to have dark, soft, fluffy hair free from dandruff. It has done wonders for me, and am positive it will do the same for others.

Yours very truly,

Miss E. Wilkins, 841 Parker St.
